

Movie Reflections

Blind Side (PG)

Based on the true story of Michael Oher, former American football player, The Blind Side shares the powerful narrative of how the Tuohy's include 'Big Mike' into their family and journey with him to uncover his true potential.

The Crash Leads to a Calling

AJ and Mike are driving, AJ being the youngest of the Tuohy family and an all round little legend have an accident.

Have you ever been involved in something negative which actually led to something positive?

It can be easy when things go wrong to blame people, blame ourselves or the situation itself. Why might blame be unhelpful in the long run ?

Family

The Tuohy family asked Michael a big question, if he would like to be a part of the family officially, Michael's response was a heart felt, 'I thought I already was..'

Finish this sentence and share why Family means to me...

Who makes up your 'family' and how important are they to you?

If you could add anybody to your family, which three people in the world would you add?

Stand Up to your Friends

Leigh Ann lives in a world of great privilege and has the opportunity to lunch with her friends each week at high end restaurants. They begin to see their own blind spots as they have conversations including stereotypical views and bias being exposed. Yet one great comment that is made to Leigh Ann is this; "Your changing that boy's life". And Leigh Ann's response is "No, he's changing mine!" MIC DROP MOMENT - Insert tissues here...

Where has your contribution to others ended up shaping you?

How has that effect on you, led to a change in values, beliefs or opinion?