

Movie Reflections

Movie - How to Train a Dragon

Hiccup is a Norse teenager from the island of Berk, where fighting dragons is a way of life. His progressive views and weird sense of humour make him a misfit, despite the fact that his father (Gerard Butler) is chief of the clan. Tossed into dragon-fighting school, he endeavours to prove himself as a true Viking, but when he befriends an injured dragon he names Toothless, he has the chance to plot a new course for his people's future.

There is only one you

Don't try to be anyone else the world needs YOU.

For a long time the main character Hiccup had always wanted to be like others, his dad and others around him on the island. He could not accept that he was born looking different to all the other Vikings and that he wasn't particularly good at dragon slaying.

Chat about what it is that makes you unique gifts, talents, skills etc. man a note as a reminder to yourself what others see in you?

In history there will never be another you, Make It Count!

Strong and courageous

Making a difference requires people being you strong and courageous.

Throughout the movie Hiccup four himself in trouble for some crazy things he done. In order to save the day hiccup had to again do something a bit out there and crazy (he even managed to persuade other to join him).

Talk about a time when something required you to be courageous and bold? How did you feel and what did you learn?

What are the potential consequences of sometimes not being courageous?

Acts of Kindness

"What do you want to be when you grow up?" "Kind" said the boy. - Charlie Mackesy. Hiccup had an opportunity to kill toothless, Instead he chose compassion and help with Toothless' broken tail. That kindness was repaid when Toothless saved a human.

Discuss ways in which you show kindness during this strange season of lockdown.